

Yearly report of the Digital Culture and Communication section 2020

The DCC section is the largest section with 622 members.

The annual report includes updates about the following:

1. Update on activities in 2020
2. YECREA Representative
3. Next steps: ECC Braga
4. Next steps for 2021
5. Social Media presence

1. Update on activities in 2020

- The section had planned to co-organize the ECC Braga pre-conference workshop “Advancing Digital Disconnection Research”, taking place on October 2, 2020. Yet, this event was postponed due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
- The section did not organize any events during 2020.

2. YECREA Representative

After the ECC 2018, Sofia Caldeira (Ghent University, Belgium) filled the candidacy of the YECREA position. Sofia Caldeira has been working on the communication and visibility of the section during the difficult year of 2020 (see social media presence).

3. Next steps: ECC Braga

- Vice-chair Ana Jorge is the program chair for the section.

4. Next steps for 2021

- Elections: Section member Eline Pilipets (University of Klagenfurt) mentioned she is open to join the section management team after the ECC Braga.
- Section member Steffen Krüger from the University of Oslo made clear he would be open to discuss being the local organizer of the next midterm section event.

5. Social Media presence

The section makes active use of a blog (<https://dcecrea.wordpress.com>), Twitter (<https://twitter.com/DCCECREA>) and Facebook account (<https://www.facebook.com/groups/1005132429597657/>) to communicate to its interested parties and members.

Sander De Ridder
22/02/2021